Your home will not be built to precise dimensions or specifications shown in this website or in any model or other illustrative materials. Drawings and descriptions (including dimensions and floor area ranges) used in this website are estimates provided for illustrative purposes only. They are not sufficiently accurate for use in determining the actual floor area or air space volume in your home. The actual dimensions of your home may be greater or smaller than those dimensions shown in this website or in a model because of variations that occur in large-scale production of homes, including changes in architectural elevations and other field changes made by the builder in its sole discretion. All projects are in planned communities developed by Irvine Community Development Company LLC, an affiliate of The Irvine Company LLC. All plans subject to change.
